As soon as the newlyweds returned from their honeymoon, the young bride called her mother, who lived a couple of hours away. "How did everything go?" her mom asked.

"Oh, mother," she began, "The honeymoon was wonderful! So romantic, we had a terrific time. But, mother, on our way back, Andy started using really horrible language. Stuff I'd never heard before. Terrible four-letter words. You've got to come get me and take me home. Please, Mother!" the new bride sobbed over the phone.

"But, honey," the mother countered, "What four-letter words?"

"I can't tell you, mother, they're too awful! Please come get me!"

"Darling, you must tell me what has gotten you so upset.... Tell mother what four-letter words he used."

Still sobbing, the bride said, "Mother, they were awful, awful words like dust, wash, iron, cook."
